THE TROUBLE WITH MEXICO.

The Attempt of Mexican Officers to Seize

Sheep on Our Soil a Serious Affair.
Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—The trouble on the Mexican border over the attempt of Mexican officers to drive a flock of three thousand sheep from the United States to Mexico is still serious. A telegram received at the war depart-A tolegram received at the war department this morning from General Wheston, commanding the department of a Texas, states that two troops of the Fifth cavalry, with scouts, will march from Fort Kinggold at noon to-day for Havana, the scene of the trouble, to support the twenty men under Baptain Furburt, who have the Mexican officers and the sheep in charge. The tolegram also states that the commanding officer that Rotz Ringwold has received unofficial. at Fort Ringgold has received unofficial information that Colonel Mietro, of the Mexicanarmy, is coming up the Rio Grande from Havana to Reynosa with a force of men.

The war department is making an effort to secure detailed information as effort to secure detailed information as to the ownership of the sheep, and its action will depend on the result. Should the claim of the Mexican authorities, that the flock belongs to a Mexican citizen, he proved, the sheep will be allowed to cross over the Mexi-can line. Pending a settlement of the military aspect of the affair, the state department will hold the matter in abeyance, and then demand of the Mexican government an explanation of the action of its customs officials in the action of its customs officials in-sending an armed force to make a seiz-ure on United States soil. The ques-tion of whether the strip of land on which the sheep are located is in Mexi-co or in the United States, by reason of a change in the direction of the Rio Grande, will also be subject to diplo-matic arrangement. matic arrangement.

ARRIVED IN WASHINGTON.

The President and Family Reach the White House-All in Good Health, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1 .- President Cleveland, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland, their daughter Ruth, nurse and maid arrived in Washington this morning at 4:10 from Buzzard's Bay, Mass., over the Pennsylvania road in a special car attached to train No. 23, which left New York at 9 o'clock last night. The party remained on the train until 7 o'clock, when they were met by Private Secretary Thurber with carriages and driven to the white house carriages and driven to the white house in a drenching rain. Mr. Thurber was afterwards asked as to the general health of the party, and he replied that everybody was feeling first rate and the sojourn at Gray Gables had been bene-ficial to all. Mr. Cleveland in particu-lar was in excellent spirits; his eye was bright and complexion clear and healested vinceous and strong.

Mr. Cloveland's first day at the white house after his absence at the seashore was spent in the hardest of work. After the President went to his office and from half past 9 until half past 11 o'clock he and Private Secretary Thurber disposed of a very large amount of ac-cumulated public business. At half past 11 the cabinet meeting began and fasted until 1 o'clock. All the cabinet officers were present except Secretary

Smith.

The silver question and the present condition of the treasury were discussed, but without any measures for relief being decided upon.

A SENSATIONAL AFFAIR.

Mrs. Byers, of Pittsburgh, Creates a Scene, but Matters are Finally Explained. St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 1.—A few days ago E. M. Byers, the wealthy Pittsburgh banker and iron manufacturer, arrived from Duluth with Mrs. E. Dill, of Chicago. They put up at the Windsor Hotel and on Tuesday Mrs. Byers arrived from Pittsburgh, and going directly to the hotel charged her husband and Mrs. Dill with breaking the seventh com-mandment. This charge so excited Mr. Byers that be became temporarily in-Sane.

Dr. Tallman, of Chicago, was moned by telegraph. He came, explain-ed matters to the satisfaction of Mrs.

ed matters to the satisfaction of Mrs.

Disasters in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Quanec, Sept. 1 .- More disasters in the gulf caused by the late storm continue to be reported and it is feared more are to come. It is rumored that two Quebec tugs, one the Dauntless, were lost down the river and that the captain and engineer of the Dauntless were drowned. Contractor Connelly's dredge St. Joseph, valued at $50,000, was swamped in the gulf wille'towing from St. John, but the crew was saved.

A survivor of the bark Beatrice, wrecked on the Magdalone islands, re-ported that the Norwegian barks Otto and Antonio, also ashore at the same island, are dismasted and breaking up.

Short in His Accounts.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 1 .- A special from Kenton, O., says: Shepard Humphreys, the outgoing treasurer of Hale township, has been found short in his accounts and is a defaulter in the sum of about $2,000. He has turned over his property to secure his bondsmen against loss.

A Missing Steamship.

New York, Sept. 1.—The Atlas line steamship Alvo sailed from this port August 16 for West Indian ports with a dozen passengers and a general cargo.

From the time she passed outside Sandy Hook until the present moment she has been unreported, and the gravest lears are felt for her safety. The passage from New York to that port usually takes the Alvo from six to seven days. The course is directly in the path of the late hurricanes and this fact causes alarm at her non-arrival.

The Alvo is valued at $250,000. The steamship had a crew of sixty officers and seamen.

A BIG FAILURE.

The Equitable Mortgage Company, of Missouri, in a Receiver's Hands.

New York, Sept. 1 .- James M. Clifford and Charles N. Fowler have just been appointed receivers of the Equitable Mortgage Company, of Missouri, with offices at 40 Wall street. The capital of the company is $2,100,000. The officers of the company say this action was taken owing to the continued strin-was taken owing to the continued stringency of money and consequent inability to dispose of securities, or to collect interest on maturing loans.

The order appointing the receiver was made by the United States court and was upon the application of the New York Security and Trust company on a note held by J. O. Bloss for $45,000. The company has interest payments between now and December last to the amount of $539,529, which, owing to the stringency in money, it is unable to meet. The company dealt largely in municipal bonds and also made a specialty of real estate mortgage business, chiefly in New England, the western and southern states

THE CHESTER HORROR.

Fourteen Dead and Another Dying the Sum Total of the Fatalities.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Sept. 1 .- Fourteen dead, another dying, nearly forty seriously injured and two missing, is the sum total of the Chester horror as ascertained up to 3 p. m. to-day. It is believed that there are several bodies still hid by the mass of debris in the Westfield river and some of the work-men who picked their way over the dis-torted timbers this morning told grue-some tales of the discovery of unlifted arms and ghastly heads reflected in the pellucid stream. All these stories, how-ever, lack corroboration. The work of removing the debris is progressing slowly and not for several days will it be possible to obtain more definite in-formation concerning the number of

A DUEL IN EARNEST.

Camillo Dreyfus Wounded Three Times and Asks for Another Meeting. Paris, Sept. 1 .- A duel was fought vesterday in the outskirts of Paris between M. Drumont, editor of the Libra Parole, and M. Camille Dreyfus. Rapiers were used. M. Dreyfus received three slight wounds on the arm, one in the side and a third in the chest M. Drumont was not scratched. M. Dreyfus was weak from loss of blood and was not able to continue, but asked for a further meeting to-morrow. He also expressed a wish that pistols be used at the second meeting. This M. used at the second meeting. This M. Drumont agreed to without hesitation. The cause of the duel was an article published in M. Drumont's paper charging that all Jewesses of the upper classes were women of easy virtue.

Cholera at Grimsby.

LONDON, Sept. 1 .- The port of Grimsby, in Lincolnshire, has been declared to be infected with cholera and traffic between it and other British ports has between it and other British ports has been prohibited. During August there were eighty deaths in Grimsby from what was called at first diarrheas and later a choleraic disease. The general belief now is that many of these deaths were due to cholera.

The emphatic denials by the General Electric officials that the company was in difficulty had a good effect on the stock market at the start. The rally to 35% at the opening upset calculations of a number of operators who had been load in their predictions of a further general decline in prices. The supply of stocks was smaller than they had expected. In the afternoon the failure of the Equitable Mortgage Company, of Missour, with main offices in light city, was announced, and it was stated that another institution of similar character was in trouble. The importance of the failure of the former subsequently proved to have been exagerated, but not until the room had put out fresh lines of shorts. At the close the market was strong.
